

COMMONWEALTH of VIRGINIA
Virginia Employment Commission

00041699036015737016

B-DFF-004

THOMAS COATES
3416 WARREN PL APT 201
VIRGINIA BEACH, VA 23452 - 5648

Claimant Information

Mail Date: 10/02/2025
Claimant Name: THOMAS COATES
ID: 54377566
SSN: xxx-xx-9495
Issue ID: 25113068
Benefit Year End Date: 09/12/2026
Appeal Date: 11/01/2025

Employer Information

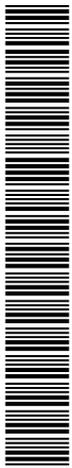

Last 30 Day/240 Hour Employer: COX
COMMUNICATIONS HAMPTO
Did you know... you can retrieve this and other documents by going online and logging into your account. Creating an online account is simple, secure, and easy.

Decision of Deputy

Based on facts obtained in connection with this claim for unemployment insurance benefits filed effective 09/14/2025, the undersigned deputy pursuant to Section 60.2-614 of the Virginia Unemployment Compensation Act (as shown on the back) renders the following decision.

The claimant is Denied benefits from 09/14/2025 through 09/12/2026.

Section 60.2-614 of the Virginia Unemployment Compensation Act provides that an individual who files a claim and is paid benefits cannot receive benefits from a subsequent claim unless, after filing the first claim, he works for an employer for thirty days or 240 hours and becomes totally or partially separated from that employer.
The claimant was paid benefits on a claim effective 07/28/2024, but has not worked for an employer for thirty days or 240 hours and become separated since filing that claim.
Therefore, the claimant is ineligible for benefits for the period shown.

000000015737016

vec3380
Deputy, Virginia Employment Commission

Any party named above who disagrees with the decision has a right to file an appeal.
Appeal rights are explained on the back of this correspondence. Read your appeal rights carefully.

APPEAL RIGHTS

This decision becomes final unless a notice of appeal is filed by 11/01/2025.
The appeal must be in writing and should set forth the grounds upon which the appeal is sought.

Appeals should be filed through one of the following methods:
Internet	Fax	Mail	In-Person
www.vec.virginia.gov	(804) 786-8492	Virginia Employment Commission Attention: First Level Appeals P.O. Box 26441 Richmond, VA 23261-6441	At Any VEC Service Location

The final date for appeal indicated above may be extended for good cause. If an appeal is filed after the final date for appeal, an appeal hearing will be scheduled at which time evidence will be taken concerning why the appeal was not filed timely. If the Appeals Examiner finds that there was good cause for filing the appeal late, the appeal of this decision will be heard immediately, during the same hearing.

Note: If an appeal is filed from this decision, the claimant should continue to file weekly claims for benefits in case this decision is reversed or revised as a result of the appeal. If benefits are paid for any week(s) during which the claimant is denied benefits because of this decision or because of a subsequent decision that was issued as a result of an appeal, the claimant will be required to repay those benefits.

§ 60.2-614. Service required during immediately preceding benefit year in which individual received benefits.

No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the immediately preceding benefit year during which he received benefits, he performed service for an employer as defined in § 60.2-210 for remuneration (i) during thirty days, whether or not such days were consecutive, or (ii) for 240 hours, and subsequently became totally or partially separated from such employment.

